RESPONSIVE TO GLOBALIZATION & DIVERSITY

SEAMEO SEA-TVET AND SEA TEACHER EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Fifteen (15) PSU students were engaged in PSU SEA-TVET exchange students program in Indonesian Universities.

PSU welcomed the 3rd Batch of the 2019 SEA-TVET program with 24 Indonesian exchange students who will be staying in 5 PSU campuses: Urdaneta City, Sta Maria, San Carlos City, Lingayen, and Binmaley campus for a 28 activity-filled days.

Pangasinan State University welcomed the Education and Culture Attaché Office of Indonesian Embassy in Manila to support their intent of promoting Indonesian culture to the Filipino community through an event called "Glimpse of Indonesia" on June 4, 2019 held at the Tech Voc Building, Lingayen Campus.

Also, a Batik workshop was organized by the Office of International and Local Affairs headed by Dr. Sally A. Jarin and was participated by around 150 PSUnians.

Pangasinan State University opened its gates anew to International Exchange Students from Thailand and Indonesia for the SEA-TVET and SEA Teacher programs of the Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organization (SEAMEO).

The university, through an orientation program, formally welcomed the 4th batch of SEA-TVET and 8th Batch of SEA-Teacher exchange students from the two countries on September 2, 2019 at the Dr. Boquiren Convention Hall. The 4th batch of SEA-TVET and 8th batch of SEA Teacher (Pre-Service Student Teacher Exchange in Southeast Asia) had come to its conclusion as the Director for Local and International Linkages, Dr. Sally A. Jarin led a closing program where outcomes of the program were discussed by the Internship Coordinators of Lingayen, San Carlos, and Sta. Maria Campuses on September 27, 2019.

PSU's School of Advanced Studies (SAS) and Open University System (OUS) through their officials initialized academic partnership with University of Malang, Indonesia. This endeavor is seen to open the gates of collaboration between the two universities in the future.

CONDUCT OF SEACAR 2019

PSU inked Memoranda of Understanding with Universitas Muhammadiyah Surakarta and Politeknik Negeri Batam, both Universities of Indonesia for future academic and research collaborations during the #SEACAR2019 at Lingayen, Pangasinan.
